Conservative Rules Wanted by Congressmen of Both Parties.

POSTMASTER M'KEAN ON CHANGES.

The Monongahela City Postoffice Fight Over Without Bloodshed.

AMOS CUMMINGS CAUSES A SENSATION. He Asks for an Appropriation for a Statue of Samue

J. Illden. A conservative code of rules may be insisted upon by a number of Republican members as well as Democrats. Representative Cummings, of New York, wants $50,-000 appropriated for a statue of the late Samuel J. Tilden. Postmaster McKean talks on proposed changes in the Pittsburg postoffice. The Monougabela City postoffice has been settled, but McKeesport is yet

[FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.] WASHINGTON, January 13.-Representa tives McKinley, Cannon and Carlisle, all members of the Committee on Rules, atended the funeral of Congressman Kelley, in Philadelphia, to-day. They will return to-morrow, however, and a meeting of the committee is expected to be held. The Democratic members will not attend this meeting, and the Republicans will probably order a report upon the code as prepared by Speaker Reed

The features Mr. Carlisle objects to especially are the provisions that a motion to go into committee of the whole to consider any measure shall not be recognized unless made with the approval of the committee having charge of the measure; that legislation may be put on appropriation bills; the restoration of the old morning hour, and the omission of any provision for a motion to take a recess or to adjourn over a day set.

There are a number of measures that have been defeated from time to time by the efforts of a minority composed of members of both parties. The Republicans who have fought these measures do not want rules adopted that will make their opposition tutile in the tuture. Other Republicans are opposed on general principles to the adoption of rules which they would not be willing to abide by should they fall into the minority in the future.

These members-and there are a number of them-insist that a conservative course should be followed, and that the radical features shall be stricken from the code. LIGHTNER.

A STATUE OF S. J. TILDEN.

The Startling Proposition Made by Ames J. Cummings, of New York. WARHINGTON, January 13 .- Representative Cummings, of New York, to-day introduced a joint resolution for the erection of a statue to the memory of the late Samuel J. Tilden. The joint resolution reads as follows:

Tilden, nineteenth President of the United States—Elected, but not seated." [Applause on the Democratic side.] That on the right of the square base shall be engraven the date of birth, election and death of such President, and that on the opposite side shall be engraven an eagle with a snake in his talons, and under them these words: "For the right."

Resolved, That the President of the Supreme Court, the President of the Supreme Court, the President of the Supreme Court, the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives be authorized to superintend the expenditure of money, and that a copy of these resolutions, with the names and titles of dignitaries, be engraven on the rear of said base.

Mr. 5 weeny, of Iowa, inquired whether the gentleman expected the inscriptions to be in cipher. [Applause on the Republican side.] the front base of said statue there shall be con-ments of Rivers. PERON A STAFF CORRESPONDENT 1 WASHINGTON, January 13 .- The House Committee on Rivers and Harbors held its first meeting to-day, and organized for the shend, who is a member of that committee, in discussing the subject with THE DIS-PATCH correspondent, said: "At this morning's meeting there was nothing but a general conversation on the subject of internal improvements. There was no indication dropped as to the probable amount of the bill it is proposed to report to the House, for the reports of the engineers have not yet been furnished to the committee. I shall try to have included in the bill appropriations for continuing the improvements of the Menongahela and Ohio rivers. I am in favor of a liberal policy in this matter, where the improvements contemplated are necessary, and will be beneficial. But there shall be no extravagance if I can prevent it."

Solicitor Hepburn Recommends the Abelition of a State Board of Immigration. WASHINGTON, January 13 .- W. P. Hepburn, the Solicitor of the Tressury, in his report to Secretary Windom, giving the results of his recent investigation of immigration matters at the port of New York, expresses the opinion that the present contract with the Board of Immigration should be terminated by giving the necessary 60 days' notice, and that the whole supervision of the contract labor and of the immigrant laws should be placed under the direction of an officer of the Treasury Department under the Collector of the Port of New York. The State of New York, Mr. Hepbury says, is no more a necessary party to the business of immigration than is the State of Golorado or any other of the States. NO ACTION BEFORE TO-MORROW

Pessible in the Case of the Surveyorship at Pittsburg. FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.) WASHINGTON, January 13 .- There will be nothing done in the case of the Pitts burg Surveyor until Wednesday at the earliest. The papers of the several applicants were taken to the President Saturday by Secretary Windom, but after a very brief examination Mr. Harrison concluded that he would not have time just then to enter into a thorough consideration of the case, so the papers were all taken back to the Treasury Department, and the Secretary will not have another opportunity of bringing the matter before the President again until

POSTOFFICE CHANGES,

Mr. McKenn Says If Any Are Necons They Will be Made-He Tells Mr. Wanamaker Just What He Nords.

TROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT, 1 WASHINGTON, January 13.-Mr. Me-Kean, the newly appointed postmaster at Pittsburg, arrived here to-day, with Super-intendent of the Mails Collins. Together they called upon Postmaster General Wanamaker and his two assistants, Clarkson and Whitfield. With each of these gentlemen they had interviews of a highly satisfactory

"My visit here," said Mr. McKean to THE DISPATCH correspondent, "was simply for the purpose of seeing these gentlemen and exchanging views with them on matters connected with the facilitation of busi-ness at the Pittsburg office. They treated me very kindly, and promised to do all in their power to enable me to carry out my recommendations. I told them I wanted an enlargement of the letter carriers force, more clerks and larger and better accommore clerks and larger and better accommodations. The last question is an important one, and somewhat difficult of adjustment. The present office is much crowded, and it will be at least three years, probably, before the new public building now in course of crection will be ready for occupancy. In the meanwhile, it will be necessary for us to secure some additional temporary accommodations in order to carry on the business of the office properly. But we did not arrive at any decision on that point to-day."

"Are you going to make many changes in the personnel of the office, Mr. McKean?" asked THE DISPANCH correspondent.

the personnel of the office, Mr. McKean?"
asked THE DISPATCH correspondent.
"Oh, I don't know," said he, good humoredly. "If they are necessary I suppose I shall."

Very New Pennsylvania Congressmen Left In Washington Yesteday.

1FROM A STAFF CORRESPONDENT. WASHINGTON, January 13 .- The Pennsylvania delegation in Congress was considerably depleted to-day. Nearly all of the members went over to Philadelphia to attend the funeral of Representative Kelley, and only a corporal's guard was left in Washington to watch the interests of the State. Among those who remained here were Congressmen Bayne, Townsend, Craig, Atkinson and Kerr. They did not attempt to do very much, and were not called upon to manifest their patriotism to any marked

INDORSEMENT OF THE STRIKES. ral Committee of Organized Labor

Passes Resolutions.

The General Committee of Organized Labor assembled last night and drew up the following resolutions in reference to the electricians and gripmen's strikes:

WHENEAR, Owing to the fact that the gripmen and conductors of the Pittsburg Traction Company have been dismissed for their affiliation.

ation te organized labor,
Resolved, That the General Committee of Organized Labor do pledge them its hearty moral support. Organized Labor do pledge them is hearly moral support.

Resolved, That this General Committee do argreatly request all members of organized labor and the public in general to refrain from patronizing the Pittaburg Traction Company until everything is arranged satisfactorily.

Whereas, Owing to the fact that L. U. 8006, electricians, did on or about 6th December, 1859, have sufficient cause to leave the employ of the Allegheny County Light Company, Resolved, That the cause of the L. U. having been laid before the General Committee of Organized Labor for adjustment, that we, the members of the General Committee, de pledge ourselves to do all in our power to further their objects, and accord them our moral support.

ved, That we indorse the action of the class' Union, No. 8898. BY THE GENERAL COMMITTEE. It is understood that the gripmen are pre-paring aworn statements which will prove conclusively that the only reason why they were discharged by the Pittsburg Traction Company was because of their connection with the Knights of Labor.

George Floming Out of Connellmanie Matters, but Prominent Elsewise. George Fleming said last night that he war out of the Council fight in the First ward. As far as his support of Cassidy for Alderman was concerned, he would not say that he would withdraw until some other man would take his place.

This was regarded as improbable, and Mr. Flaming is new looked upon, although not in the Councilmanic fight, to be to a certain extent a power behind the throne.

This is a literal fact. Ten dollars is all that will be asked by us this week for either Suit or Overcoat, which requires no stretch of imagination to suppose cannot be duplicated outside our store under from $2 to $5 more money-all the "Discount Sales," "Sacrifice Sales," "Bargain Sales," with which this city is at the present time flooded, notwithstanding. We offer for the small price of $10 Suits and Overcoats which will please the eye; which will fit the body; which are in the latest fashion; which possess good wearing qualities. Suits and Overcoats which have more style, more character and more sterling worth than you'll obtain in any Suits or Overcoats sold in any other clothing store in town for from 20 to 50 per cent more money.

Large as this stock is, it would need to be ten times larger if people but knew of what extraordinary value at every Overcoat in the whole stock is.

WE DON'T WANT TO PUT IT TOO FORCIBLY.

But we desire to fasten your attention on the fact that the
